FROM WASHINGTON.

Slaughter of Indians---President Johnson Receives $42,000 of his Washington Deposit--Nothing from the Virginius Affair--The Execution of the Cuban Patriots Condemned by our Government--No Official Report of Santa Rosa's Execution, &c.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—General Crook, commanding the department or Arizona, reports the slaughter of fourteen Tonton Indians during a recent scout.

Among the depositors who to-day received thirty per cent. of their deposits in the First National Bank, the first distribution of assets of that institution was President Johnson, who received nearly $22,000 out of the $73,000.

Nothing of marked importance has occured to-day with reference to the Virginius affair with the exception of a dispatch from Minister Sickles, notifying the Secretary of State that that the Spanish Government had telegraphed to the Captain General to stay all further proceedings in the case of the captives now in custody. Minister Sickles was to have had an interview with the Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs, but whether or not it took place was not known at a late hour this evening.

The execution which recently occurred, is condemned in official circles as brutal. When all the facts attending it become known, should it appear that the international law has been violated, immediate measures will be taken to maintain the dignity of this government.

But the Secretary of State has no idea that the Castellar Government will be slow to make due reparation as far as in its power, judging from the friendly disposition toward the United States, and the expressed desire to cultivate relations of peace. The Secretary of State is represented as saying to-day during an interview, with reference to the reported execution of Santa Rosas, that he had not been officially advised of it, but that Santa Rosa had given him a great deal of trouble. He was once before condemned to death as a private. After consuming a ream of paper and sending and receiving numerous cable dispatches, this Government secured his release. Only a few weeks ago Santa Rosa wrote to the Secretary saying that he rwed the preservation of his life to him; therefore, the Secretary thought Santa Rosa was not wise in again perilling his safety.

On the other hand General Moriones, in his official report of the battle to the Spanish Government, states that he passed two nights on the ground previously held by the enemy.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—The anticipated compromise, offered by the Right, will be accepted perhaps with some modification. Both sides seem disposed to pursue a conciliatory course. The excitement here and at Versailles is subsiding, and it is believed the crisis is over.

VIRGINIUS PRISONERS.

Further Particulars of the Execution--The Courage of Bembetta and Ryan.

KEY WEST, FLA., Nov. 10.—A letter from Havana dated Nov, 5th gives the following account of the execution of the Virginius prisoners at Santiago the 4th: The prisoners were shot at the place made famous by previous executions and in the usual manner, kneeling close to the slaughter house wall. All marched to the spot with firmness. Bembetta and Ryan showed maiked courage, although the former was slightly affected toward the last. Two others were quite broke down before they were bandaged, but Ryan kept up to the last and never flinched a moment and died without fear or regret. Bembetta and Ryan were killed at the first discharge.

Rome and Dr. Jeter.

The Rev. J. B. Jeter, of Richmond, Va., lectured Monday night at the Seventh Baptist Church, corner Saratoga and Paca streets. The speaker was introduced by the Rev. Dr. Brantley, and after announcing his subject to be "Rome," where he had recently spent four months, proceeded to give quite an interesting sketch of the "Eternal City" and its surroundings. He described Rome and all things connected with it. Its streets, pavements, palaces, temples, churches, dwellings, antiquities and even adverted to its historic Tiber. The lecturer spoke of the bountiful supplies of water which were eyerywhere to be seen. It was pure and limpid, and brought by means of aqueducts from the Appenine mountains. He thought it but proper to add in this connection, that no where was it so little used, notwithstanding its superabundance. The speaker's visits to St. Peter's, the Vatican, the Pantheon, the baths of Caracalla, the Palatine Hill, the Coliseum and the forum of Nero, also the bronze statue of St. Peter, were narrated in pleasing and at times graphic style. The lecturer did not call upon the Pope, because the Pope did not call upon him, and therefore he did not see that distinguished ecclesiastic.

The audience was large and gave the speaker their undivided attention through the hour and a-half he occupied at the sacred desk. The lecture was delivered in obedience to a request from the Woman's Missionary Society. The speaker had ever obeyed the mandate of woman from his childhood. A collection was taken up at the close, which realized a large amount for the Missionary Society.—Baltimorican.

The Cincinnati Enquirer points to Tuesday's elections as to a handwriting on the wall, and emphatically declares: The word has gone along the line that the days of Republican misrule are numbered.

LOCAL BRIEFS—

A communication on the crisis by a cantributor will appear to-morrow.

We hope the entertainment at Tucker Hall this evening will be a Tremaine-dous success.

Judge Tourgee was in the city yesterday morning en route to Pittsboro, to hold the regular term of Chatham Superior Court.

David A. Jenkins. Esq., State Treasurer, returned to the city Sunday morning from a visit to his family in Gaston county.

Notwithstanding the fact that Dr. Doepp's piano was taken out of Tucker Hall after the concert last Friday, the instrument is still in (Ihne.)

Remember the Tremaine Brothers' concert to-night, and the cause of the poor of the city, for whose aid one-half of the proceeds will be given. Good music and a good cause ought to insure a full house.

While driving down Fayetteville street yesterday morning, the fore and hind wheels of Sheriff Lee's buggy came off simultaneously, but the horse was checked up before any damage was done. Spec some of the boys had been 'tricking' the Sheriff.

INSANE ASYLUM.—The annual report of the Superintendent of this institution has been completed. Under the management of Dr. Gressom the Asylum is comprised in four words: "It is a success."

POOR PECK.—Troubles crowd thick and fast upon the devoted head of Peck, the ex-Revenue Collector of the 2nd District. He has been arrested, tried before a Commissioner and bound over to the United States Circuit Court in this city, on the charge of embezzlement of public funds.

ATTENTION RESCUE!—The members of Rescue Steam Fire Company are required to meet at the Engine House promptly at 2½ o'clock this (Tuesday evening) in full uniform for parade and exercise. The roll will be called at that hour and it is expected that every member of the Company will be present to answer to his name.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—The next annual session of the North Carolina and Virginia Christian Conference will convene at Graham the 14th inst., 10 o'clock, a. m. The introductory sermon will be preached by Rev. W. T. Walker, of Monticello, N. C. The President of the General Convention will be present.

SUNDAY.—The day was clear, calm and beautiful, and everybody went to church. Every pulpit in the city was filled by the respective pastors of each, except the Baptist, which was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burwell, and the Edenton Street Methodist, by Rev. H. T. Hudson, of Warrenton. In the afternoon interesting Sunday School meetings were held at the Presbyterian and Baptist churches. There were no disorders of any character on the street, and the day passed off as it should have done, quietly and in order.

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.—John Armstrong, Esq., of this city, left for New York in obedience to a telegram Sunday, stating that his brother, a prominent business man of New York, but living in Brooklyn, had mysteriously disappeared and fears are entertained that he had been foully dealt with. He drew a large sum of money from his banking house in Brooklyn on Thursday last and started over to his place of business in New York. Since he left the Bank nothing has been heard of him by his friends. He was to have been married to-day.

REV. ROBERT BURWELL.—In the absence of Dr. Pritchard, Rev. Robt. Burwell, of this city, a minister of the Presbyterian church, filled the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday last. His sermon in the forenoon and his sermon at night were fine models of sound and instructive Gospel preaching. Members of the congregation gathered around the venerable man of God at the close of the sermons, and thanked him for the instruction they had received. We use no terms of flattery when we say that our people would be gratified and edified in hearing more frequently from Mr. Burwell in the sacred desk.

HOP AT THE INSANE ASYLUM.—On last Thursday evening, Mrs. Dr. Grissom, the accomplished lady of the Principal, gave a brilliant "hop" at the institution for the benefit of the gentlemen and lady attendants there present, who made as pleasant and happy a social circle as it has been our good fortune to witness for many days.

The young ladies, many of whom are indeed beautiful, were gallantly paired with their delighted beaux, and the evening flew away to the sounds of merry music and the clash of trembling feet. Many returns of the happy occasion were voted, with the most heart-felt thanks, to the generous lady who prepared all the enjoyment of the delightful hour.

LADIES' ASSOCIATE COMMITTEE FOR THE RELIEF OF THE POOR.—The Pastor of St. Johns' Church, desirous of rendering still more efficacious the means adopted by him for the relief of the poor, is now organizing an Association of pious ladies to co-operate with the St. James' Relief Committee in the holy work of succoring the poor during the approaching winter. The Pastor says: "It shall be the first duty of these benevolent ladies to offer prayers to God for the alleviation of the wants of his suffering members. God loves the poor. He leaves them to you always. He instructs you that they are blessed—blessed, if they bear their poverty in a spirit of resignation to His adorable will, at the same time making industrious efforts to fulfil the duties of their station in life in a manner becoming their character of children of the Most High. This practice of praying for the poor possesses another and very important advantage. It makes us feel we are their brethren. It brings home sensibly to our hearts that in wordly goods we are their more favored, but perhaps less deserving members. Praying for the poor draws us near them. It destroys that cold, unchristian feeling which represents the poor as not a near and very precious part of the great family to which we ourselves belong. Prayers for the poor annihilates the distance between them and us. It makes us realize the fact that they have a right to be fed by our hands, to be warmed at our firesides—in other words, it makes us understand that we are guilty of sin if we enjoy the luxuries of the table and the warmth of a happy home while there is a fellow-creature at our door whose palate tastes no nourishing food, whose limbs are benumbed and unprotected from the rigors of the winter blast.

The second duty devolving on the Ladies Associate Committee shall be to labor within their households to provide and set apart something in the way of money, food or covering for the comfort of their destitute fellow-creatures. Realize in your heart within that the poor are your fellow-creatures, that they are your own flesh and blood, that they are your own members, coming forth from the same source, having the same great Father God, having the same destiny before them, aye perhaps having a higher, a holier, a more inalienable right to God's love, to Heaven's beatitude than you have! Realize these thoughts, let them be the spice of your daily bread, and then you will labor for the poor and find your consolation in lightening the load of their affliction.

The third duty is one to which these pious ladies will apply themselves from week to week, and which they will regard as a mission of love. They will go among their friends and neighbors soliciting for the love of the living God something which will contribute one way or another to the comfort and consolation of these afflicted members of Jesus Christ. Three words comprise the sum of the duties devolving on the pious ladies of this Associate Committee. These words are Prayer, Labor, Request. By remembering these words, they will have learned by heart a holy lesson which will be for themselves an inexpressible consolation at the hour of death.

Pray for the Poor.
Labor for the Poor.
Request assistance for the Poor."

OXFORD ITEMS.—The following items are from our Oxford correspondent and dated Saturday 9th inst.

The removal of the school of Messrs. Horner and Graves from this place to Hillsboro will entail an irreparable loss on Oxford and result in a gain to Hillsboro that does not admit of computation. These gentlemen have engaged the services of Mr. Abram W. Venable, Jr., of this place as one of their assistants. Young Mr. Venable was formerly a pupil of theirs, enjoyed a course of instruction at the Virginia Military Institute, and has recently gone to Poughkeepsie, New York, to avail himself of the advantages offered by the Commercial College at that place.

During the temporary absence of Rev. A. D. Cohen Mr. J. H. Mills has been sojourning in Oxford devoting his time to the promotion of the welfare of the orphans.

A free entertainment took place this evening (Thursday Nov. 6th,) consisting of a series of interesting exercises performed by the orphans, in which they acquitted themselves with much credit. The entertainment was highly enjoyed by the persons in attendance. Mr. Nichols, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, Dr. W. G. Hill, of Raleigh, and Dr. Summerrell, of Salisbury, were among the spectators. Among other pleasing incidents was a competitive examination of the members of the several classes or forms, to test their capacity for spelling such words as the teachers chose to give out. Mr. Mills offered a prize to the one in each form that exhibited the most accuracy in spelling the words announced. In the first form examined, one of the little Indians bore off the prize, receiving with delight a pocket knife as the trophy of his victory.

The contest between two of the little girls in one of the sorms was animated for several minutes, each one of them acquiting herself in a most satisfactory manner. Finally, however, one of them was victorious, receiving a mug as the reward of her success. After a few moments delay Mr. Mills gave a mug also to her little competitor, who had so nearly approximated success.

Richard Hunt, colored, has been charged with stealing oats from Mr. Henry T. Knott. Mr. Knott traced the wagon to Oxford from Hunt's house.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to learn that Dr. John W. Booth, a prominent physician of Graville county, has been tendered a position on a leading Southern Medical Journal, as Corresponding Editor for North Carolina.

Quite a number of Baptist ministers were in the city yesterday, returning from the Baptist State Convention recently in session at Warrenton.

Major John B. Neal, of the firm of Baker, Neal & Co., of Norfolk, is at the Yarboro House.

Capt. B. M. Collins, of Warren county, is at the National.

Capt. W. H. Bobbitt, of McDowell, is in the city.

LOUISBURG ITEMS.—Our correspondent C. M. W., of Louisburg, sends us the following items of interest from his section:

The sale at M. Lankford's, which took place last Thursday, the 6th inst., five miles from Louisburg, was well attended and much valuable property sold for cash. The sale demonstrated the great pressure in monetary matters. Mr. L goes to Virginia, near Suffolk.

Trade in town is greatly depressed, cotton selling from 10½ to 12 cents according to quality, whether cash or barter. Our farmers are down in the mouth with sad faces, &c.

On Monday of this week, while the Commissioners were in session, the death of Mr. Zedekia Edwards was announced, and they immediately adjourned in respect to his memory. He was a most punctual attendant on its sessions and a faithful public servant.

On Thursday night, the 6th inst., Mrs. B. T. Ballard, a most amiable and accomplished lady, died. I leave to another pen to write her obituary.

On yesterday, Friday, the 7th inst., Mr. Wisten Perry, one of our oldest and most worthy citizens, died. He was a member of Maple Spring Baptist church, and was universally beloved and esteemed for his hospitality and goodness.

And last, it gives me real sorrow to inform you of the death of my nearest neighbor in this town, Mrs. Charlotte S. Baker, mother of George S. Baker, editor of the Franklin Courier. She was 68 years old, and a member of the Methodist E. Church. I have known her long and well, and can truly say that in all the relations of life I have never met with her superior. She died at 4 o'clock p. m. on Friday the 7th.

TAKE DOWN YOUR SIGN.—A three hundred pound Durhamite yesterday invaded the large clothing store of Messrs. R. B. Andrews & Co., and intimated his desire to purchase a suit of clothing. Andrews with a "smile that was child-like and bland" surveying the giant form of his customer, at once went for the "largest" he had in his shop. Coats, vest and pants were all tried in valn for a fit; the largest vest in the house lacked at least four inches of coming to a 'meet' and Andrews gave up the job, saying: I can't fit you in a suit but can furnish you in shirts. "Exactly what I want," said our ponderous friend. Down came the boxes and bundles, the yoke of the largest was measured and found to be fully three inches too small.

The Durhamite, somewhat vexed at not being able to find in the largest clothing house in the city of Raleigh a single article of clothing large enough for him, remarked as he turned on his heels to leave the room.

"My friend, as long as you have nothing but boys clothing you ought not to fool strangers with that pretty sign you have out there; take it down and order out that advertisement in the DAILY NEWS that brought me here. The reply of Mr. Andrew's was not distinctly heard, but something was said about "never proposing to cover up a Durham tobacco factory in broad cloth."

THE REAMS COTTON CHOPPER.—Mr. Reams, the inventor and patentee of that great improvement in agricultural implements, the Reams Cotton Chopper and Cultivator has received an application from a purchaser for the territory of Mississippi. The applicant, an enterprising manufacturer and dealer in agricultural implements in Vicksburg, saw the patent on file in Washington and was at once impressed with the fact of its being a success, and has filed his application. We are more than pleased to chronicle this further evidence of the success of one of our State inventions, and we hope our friend Reams will very soon reap the fortune that is (to our mind) wrapped up in that Cotton Chopper.

Mr. Reams is making his arrangements to establish a foundry and wood shop at once, so as to be able to meet the large demand for his chopper next Spring. The entire work, both wood and iron, will be under his own supervision, and in his own hands. He does this in order to put the price of his Chopper within the reach of all classes of the farming community, the poor as well as the rich.

THE TREMAINE'S TO-NIGHT.—Get your tickets early this morning for the Tremaine concert at Tucker Hall, as there will doubtless be a well merited ovation. The concert is given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association for the benefit of the poor of Raleigh, and a better opportunity for a small investment towards the relief of the poor will never be offered. The Tremaines are too well known here to require any commendation from us. Suffice it to say that the concert is worth more than the price of admission.

TOBACCO FACTORY BURNED NEAR HENDERSON.—The tobacco factory of Capt. J. L. B. White, near Henderson, in Granville county, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. This is the warehouse recently seized by the Internal Revenue authorities, for a violation of the law, and contained several thousand pounds of manufactured tobacco. It is not known how the fire originated, but supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

THE DAILY NEWS.

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

TUESDAY.....NOVEMBER 11, 1873.

We give space this morning to the premium list of the late Fair of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society, as both the Daily and Weekly NEWS have large circulations in the sections embraced and interested in this Fair.

THE Legislature of this State convenes on Monday next. There are many important questions to be considered at this session, and we trust they may be handled with that firmness and decision which the necessities of the hour demands.

THE Chairman of the Conservative Executive Committee of Virginia has issued a congratulatory address to the Conservatives of that State upon the glorious victory won over the Republicans on Tuesday last. Says he:

"Yours has been a victory worthy the great principles you advocate; worthy your patriotic sires; worthy the cause of liberty and the noble and triumvirate that gallantly bore your flag and routed your opponents upon every contested field."

A REVOLTING scene occurred at Wilmington, Penn,, a few days since. A man, while upon the scaffold awaiting death by hanging, endeavored to create a sensation by brutal blasphemies and bravado, the drop falling whilst an oath was being uttered. But the bungling hangman had the rope too long, and the ruffian fell to the ground. He was again carried upon the scaffold, but this time his oaths were turned into pitiful exclamations, his brutal courage having failed him. But again the hangman bungled, the rope was too short, and the unfortunate man was left to be strangled to death.

AT A meeting of the creditors of the firm of A. & W. Sprague, three Trustees were appointed, under whose supervision the business of the house will be conducted by the members of the firm as agents until all creditors are paid. Says the Tribune:

"This action of the creditors affords another proof in addition to the many which have gone before, of the unfailing sagacity and good temper with which American merchants confront every emergency which arises in difficult times. In this case, by the adoption of these reasonable and salutary measures, the existence of one of the greatest manufacturing houses on the continent is secured, and the widespread disaster which would have followed its fall is averted."

THERE is but little doubt that there will be many good results from the present financial pressure, when it shall have passed away, not the least of which will be a general reduction upon the cost of the prime necessaries of life. The cost of living for years past has been on the basis of inflation, whilst gold is down to nothing. However much we may deplore the present condition of affairs, we confess we hope the teachings of the hour may be productive of good in many ways. Our people can everywhere learn a lesson from the present, and should become more frugal and careful with the little means that may be at their command.

THE result of the recent election in Virginia has caused the Washington Republican to throw up its hands in holy horror at the "outrages and intimidations" perpetrated at the polls upon the "innocent" Republicans, and says it is time that some action should be taken to prevent future repetition of these occurrences. The cry of "stop thief" from the Republican is, to say the least, in so far as Virginia is concerned, in rather bad taste, when it has only to turn to New York, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Kansas, Michigan and New Jersey, and see the immense amount of "outrages and intimidations" that must have been necessary on Tuesday last to have given such large Democratic gains. The hand-writing on the wall has been seen by the Republican, and hence its cries.

GOV. VANCE delivered the annual address before the late Fair of the People's Agricultural and Mechanical Association at Hickory, in Catawba county. The Piedmont Press thus speaks of the effort of the Governor:

"Gov. Vance made the great speech of his life, on Thursday. We cannot speak of this distinguished man, honored and loved to-day by the masses as no other man in North Carolina, without indulging in platitudes to some extent. We shall not speak of this great effort as a chaste and scholarly production, for it was not.

"But, it was plain, and practical, dressed up in every-day clothes, chockfull of the hardest common sense—the right sort of a speech, and the only sort, for such an occasion. He spoke directly to the farmers—pointed out in a most masterly manner their true interests. The educational interests of North Carolina, he considered parmount to everything else—more education and less talk of emmigration. We repeat, that it was a great speech, and we trust and believe it will accomplish much good."

THE scientists seem determined to discover whatever mysteries there may be connected with the North Pole, that unexplored region possessing a fascination as strong as if it were an electrical phenomenon. It is stated that the leading scientific societies in England are preparing an appeal to that Government to dispatch another exploring expedition, next year, to the frozen region, and it is thought the matter will be favorably considered. Says the New York Tribune:

"There are no longer such serious dangers to be anticipated as met former expeditions; the accumulation of experience and of new scientific appliances renders the way of the explorer now comparatively easy. As for the methods of the exploration, Arctic authorities are at prrsent of the opinion that two well-fortified steamers should proceed up Baffin's Bay, and as far to the North as possible up Smith Sound, whence traveling parties would explore the unknown area. At the entrance of Smith Sound one of the steamers would remain as depot vessel, while the other pressed onward to the North. By this means any accident to the latter would not be the calamity it has proved in less thorough expeditions. It is argued that if the Polaris, a river steamer of small power and ill adapted for ice navigation, could get so far as it did without difficulty, a properly equiped English expedition could do more. An additional safeguard is the perfection to which the art of sledge traveling has been brought, thus giving the best opportunity for the most useful discoveries in the North."

The Public Debt of North Carolina.

We have heretofore published in detail, the various items that compose our public indebtedness, amounting, principal and interest, to about $38,000,000.

Judging from the comments made on this subject by several of our exchanges, we suppose that at the approaching session of the Legislature an earnest move will be made to put our indebtness in a train of settlement.

Interest is now accumulating at the rate of $2,000,000 annually, and a further postponement will only increase the difficulties that surround the matter.

The special tax bonds should be declared unconstitutional, and should no longer be considered when considering the question of our indebtedness.

Not counting these, the State debt is in round numbers $24,000,000.

We insist that in scaling this amount the Legislature should keep constantly in view the patent fact that $500,000 is as much money as North Carolina can possibly pay for interest under the most favorable circumstances.

And that at present we cannot raise for such a purpose more than $200,000 without crippling the energies of our people so much as to prevent them from ever bettering their pecuniary condition.

Let a wise policy prevail. In settling on any plan of arrangement with the public creditors, let the Legislature be governed by considerations of what the present condition of the State justifies, and what we can reasonably hope the future has in store for us.

In 1890 we may more readily raise $500,000 interest money, than we can now raise half that amount.

All of our experience proves that unless some terrible trouble, such as another war, comes to disturb us, we will each year increase our ability to pay interest.

With time comes wealth and an improvement.

Fixing the amount of interest which we can undertake to pay in proportion to our ability to fulfil our contract, we would put the interest in the near future at say $200,000—and let it run up gradually till five hundred thousand is reached.

No matter what the principal of the debt may be fixed at, we would insist that the interest should be thus arranged on a sliding scale, and should never exceed this latter amount.

THEY WILL HAVE THEIR WHISKEY.—Inquiries made yesterday among leading rectifiers and distillers of alcohol and liquors and among the refiners of petroleum elicited the fact that this class of manufacturers are feeling the present financial depression less than those of any other considerable branch of trade. The trade in distilled liquors was never better, according to data obtained by a Tribune reporter, and the fact is brought prominently to view that the monetary stringency has little or no influence upon the drinking habits of the people.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Gorsseddorffidldrrwdr, an Eisteddfodk, to be held at Coedpoetherwythds next year, the designation of Eisteddfodd Cadcorywhyriolddr Dyffwryhrywruddolwhyn Mæwhydlor, has been proclaimed with all the ancient ceremonies, a Welsh rabbitt being slaughtered by Ciwywywywddwdwdfwyardd, the principal bard, who was assisted by Iolololulo Trewhyddewilwhn and others, who helped to drink all the whisky. The old practice of outlandish names for these ceremonies has been entirely discarded.

A day before the Modoc hanging the chaplain was endeavoring to convert Jack, and among other things told him glowing stories of the happy land. His remarks seemed to have an effect on the captain, who asked him if he knew all about God and the happy land. The chaplain said he thought he did. "Well," said Jack, "You, you know all about Him, me give you ten horses you take my place to-morrow."

The people of New York have decided to keep the election of the judiciary in their own hands. The voice of the Bar, however, is nearly unanimously in favor of appointment, and the Bar Association, although refusing to make any recommendation to voters at the last election, issued a small pamphlet giving the arguments and reasons upon which the opinions of their associates were basted.

Ex-Governor Coburn, of Maine, is called the richest man in the State, and as he is a bachelor, a certain educational institution is said to have hopes of a remembrance in his will.

Hon. O. P. Meares, of Wilmington, has accepted the invitation to deliver the address before the Sampson county Fair, at Clinton on the 28th inst.

Says the Roanoke News of the 8th inst: "While the down mail train on Wednesday was running at a rapid rate, a few miles above Littleton, a man was seen lying on the track a few paces ahead. Breaks were blown on, but before the train could be stopped it had passed over the body a human being. The train was stopped and the lifeless body of a negro man, named Warren Williams, was taken from the track. As the corpse was comparatively cold, it was supposed the man was intoxicated and probably died from other cause—or that he was dead in liquor and had fallen—to sleep the sleep that knows no waking. Liquor itself is dangerous enough, but when one is under its influence, the railroad is no safe place for one to be. Steer clear of all such evils as are sure to lead to destruction.

Says the Wilmington Journal of the 8th inst:

"While a lady resident of this city was at Union Depot yesterday afternoon, on the arrival of the train from the North, for the purpose of welcoming an expected friend, she suddenly became aware that some one was attempting to pick her pocket. The lady did not hesitate, but promptly seized the hand at the wrist, with both of her own hands, and looking up found that it belonged to a short, thick-set man, whom she is, unfortunately, unable to describe more minutely. She called for assistance but, as there were no gentlemen near her at the moment, the man succeeded in wrenching himself from her grasp and, slipping through the crowd of ladies, made his escape in safety but without the lady's pocket book."

A Pennsylvania clergyman has made a hit by introducing "personals" in his prayers, for instance: "Lord, have mercy on John Shanahan, who keeps a saloon near the old red bridge. Either lay him on a bed of sickness or have him removed from this town."

One of the sable orators of Old Virginia, made a good point when he said: "De oyster got mo' sense dan some folks, cause he knows when to keep his mouf shut."

And a very large variety of Low Price Dress Goods. My stock of Cassimeres, Piece Goods, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes is extraordinarily large and complete, and you would be doing yourselves injustice if you were not to examine it before purchasing elsewhere.
THE SECOND AND THIRD FLOORS are almost exclusively devoted to
both being filled to their utmost capacity with GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
to supply the Trade, and Country Merchants would find it to their interest to give my stock a thorough examination before making their purchases, as I think I can offer rare bargains and special inducements. With A Corps of Experienced Salesmen, ever ready to assist, I can sell, do sell, and will continue to sell as CHEAP AS THE CHEAPEST.
No house in Raleigh can or shall undersell me, it matters not whether the goods are purchased in Europe or the United States, and for these important reasons:
1st. I am alone, and have no two or three partners to divide my profits with.
2nd. I have leased my store house at a mere nominal cost.
3d. I belive in the great principle of LIVE AND LET LIVE—QUICK SALES and SMALL PROFITS.
4th. I have large experience, buy at the lowest INSIDE figures, and with the best facilities.
EXPERIENCE, the best of teachers, has long since informed the people that is the place to buy their goods, and as heretofore I shall always Represent Goods as They Are.
CREECH'S
Returning thanks for past favors, I hope to secure your patronage in the future.
Respectfully yours,

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Billousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, or a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or diseases which require treatment externally, this Liniment is everywhere regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is infallible.

His Honor, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using DR. BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from sick Headache, and from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the viscera. As an apperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, Integrity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.
H. PORTER."

Prepared by E. R. Beckwith, (sucessor to Dr. John Beckwith) Proprietor, Petersburg, Va. Sold by Druggist generally, at 25 cents per box. Joseph Carr, Wholesale Agent, Petersburg, Va.

STATIONERY.

NORTH CAROLINA ALMANAC
For 1874—7th Year.
NOW READY.
Calculated and Corrected by Dr

A Nashville man recently had occaison to go to Memphis over the Northwestern road. There were but few passengers aboard, and during the night the conductor came and sat down by him. "Going to Memphis, are you, stranger?" he asked. "Yes, sir,' said the Nashville man. "Mighty rough road, ain't it?" queried the conductor, with a yawn. "Very," was the reply. "Last time I went over the road this car we're in was upset and a man was killed all to smash," said the communicative ticket puncher, with another yawn. Then he added: "I've got the most reckless engineer on the road with me to-night, too, but I hope we won't have any accident." "I certainly hope we will not," responded the passenger, with a slight feeling of uneasiness. "Well, I don't know as it would make much difference to you," said the conductor, cheerfully; "you'll die anyway if you're goin' to Memphis."

"Little Tommy didn't disobey mamma, and go in swimming, did he?" "No, mamma; Jim Brown and the rest of the boys went in, but I remembered and would not disobey you." "And Tommy never tells lies, does he?" "No, mamma, or I couldn't go to heaven." "Then how does Tommy happen to have on Jimmy Brown's shirt?"

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, October 22nd, 1873.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year, and the earth hath yielded bountifully of all the products of its soil so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industrious mechanic has realized a rich reward for his labor, and every class of our population prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, above all, fraternal feelings and good will have in a great measure been restor-d in our midst, and no plague, pestilence or famine, has visited our State: Now therefore, as it becomes us, a grateful people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy; I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State; and I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship on said day and to exhort their congregations to humble themselves before the throne of the ever living God, and render unto Him praises which are justly due, invoking for themselves, their State and their whole country, His guidance and protection throughout all time to come.

Thursday, November 27th, 1873,

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord, let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation."

"Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms."

Done at the city of Raleigh, on this the 22nd day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seven-three, and in the ninety-eighth year of American Independence.
